

Reader's Digest Word Power Challenge

Recently students in Grades 4 - 8 participated in the Reader's Digest National Word Power Challenge.

After competing in their individual classrooms, the following students are Grade Level winners:

David Gaidas (4th),
Sean Kennedy (5th),
Aubrey Klimala (6th),
Erin Dombrowski (7th),
and an 8th grader who wishes to remain anonymous.

These students then took an online Qualifying Test. The top-scoring 4th and 5th graders in each state will receive Certificates of Merit and prizes. The top 100 Grade Level Champions from Grades 6-8 in each state are invited to compete in their State Championship.

Best of luck to these students!

