

Red Ribbon Week

St. Alexander School will be celebrated Red Ribbon Week from October 22nd to October 26th, 2007. This week raises awareness about the dangers of illegal drug use. The theme of the week for the school was “Be The Best You CAN Be...Drug Free.” The student council will sponsor a canned food drive all week. The classroom collecting the highest number of cans will win a prize.

- Monday, Officer Pace of the Palos Heights Police Department will spoke to the students about the history and meaning of Red Ribbon Week at the Red Ribbon Prayer Service.
- Tuesday was “Sock It To Drugs Day.”
- Wednesday students wore sunglasses to “Shade Out Drugs.”
- Thursday was “Put a Cap on Drugs,” and students wore caps or hats.
- Friday, was “Show Your Pride – Put Drugs Aside” and students wore red, white and blue for a Dress Down Day.

The winner of the Archdiocesan “See What You Can Be Drug Free” poster contest is Mike Bettinardi – congratulations, Mike! Below is Mike holding his winning design. It was sent to the Archdiocese as the winner from St. Alexander School for further competition.
